

MEMBERSHIP INFORMATION

Membership in the IASSID is open to any person with an interest or who is working in the area of intellectual and developmental disabilities.

Membership is designed to increase communication among scientists, scholars, practitioners, advocates, and persons with disabilities and their families who are involved in the scientific aspects of intellectual disabilities.

Membership benefits include:

- access to a network of international colleagues
- subscription to IASSID's official journal - the Journal of Policy & Practice in Intellectual Disabilities
- IASSID internet communications and access to member directory
- reduced fees at IASSID-sponsored events and conferences
- advance notice of IASSID special meetings, Congresses, and programs
- membership in any of the IASSID's special interest research groups (SIRGs)
- discount subscriptions to the JIDR (Journal of Intellectual Disability Research) and Blackwell Publishing's journals and books
- access to the "members' only" section of IASSID website
- postings of research and other information on IASSID website
- reduced registration to the 2008 IASSID World Congress and various SIRG Roundtables

ABOUT THE IASSID

The IASSID is an international and interdisciplinary scientific organization devoted to promoting worldwide research and exchanges of information on intellectual and developmental disabilities. The Association, founded in 1964, sponsors a quadrennial World Congress and one regional congress each year. A NGO to the World Health Organization, the IASSID is the first and only worldwide multidisciplinary group dedicated to the scientific study of intellectual disabilities.
